SEARCH PRESS
LIMITED
The world's finest art and craft books

Search Press Ltd is delighted to announce a licensing agreement with award-winning independent animation studio Aardman. The new partnership, which was introduced by Start Licensing, will publish practical art and craft titles relating to the Wallace & Gromit and Shaun the Sheep characters.

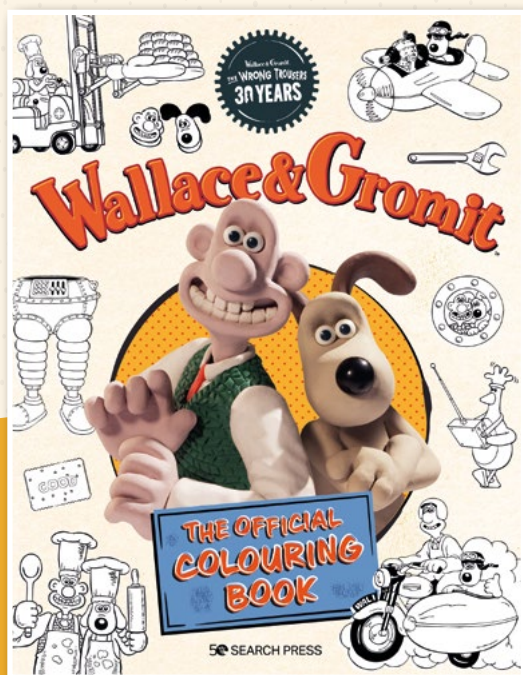

Sam Warrington, Publisher at Search Press, the global market leader in the sector, states:

"We're very excited about working with such iconic brands as Wallace & Gromit and Shaun the Sheep. While quintessentially British, the wonderful stop-motion animations have proved massively popular the world over. That popularity is only going to increase as The Wrong Trousers celebrates its 30th year in 2023, and the Aardman team have plenty more new and exciting projects ahead. The books that we'll be publishing will encourage creative people everywhere to become involved in making figures and images from these great films.

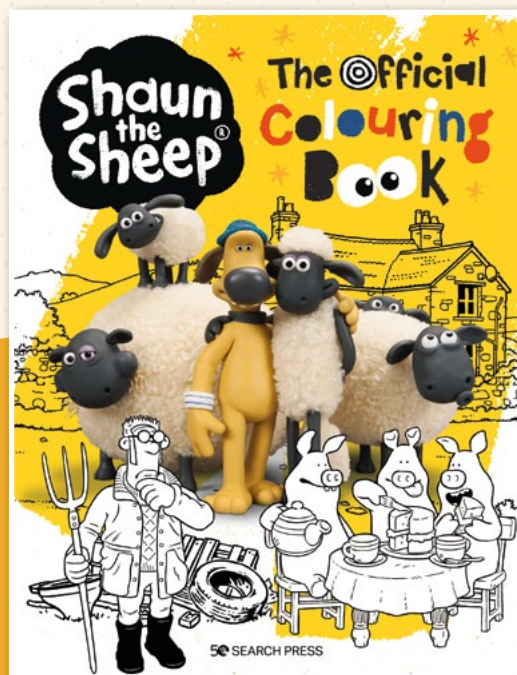

"We've launched the relationship with two colouring books for children in March: Official Colouring Books for Shaun the Sheep and Wallace & Gromit. Following on from that, we'll be publishing at least two new titles per year, which will include crochet, knitting and needle felting project books as well as related art and drawing titles. We'll also be looking at guides to clay modelling and animation. We're developing a fabulous publishing programme that will reflect the fun and humour of these well-loved characters."

Jess Houston, Senior Manager Product Development & Publishing at Aardman, says:

"We are excited to be working with Search Press on this new range of crafting titles. The products will bring fan favourites to life via different art and craft mediums, to entertain and inspire children and their families. Children can play and have fun recreating their favourite characters, outfits and props from the shows, whilst also nurturing their creative skills. From colouring in, to crochet and amigurumi, there will be lots of options to choose from!"

Caroline originally trained in Fashion Design at Solent University, and for several years designed clothes and scarves for an international textile agent. However, in 1992 she decided to return to her first love – embroidery – and went to study Textile Design at Nottingham Trent University. In 1995 she started her own business designing and producing embroidered fabrics for Liberty, including pictures, cushions, lighting and wall hangings. She also produced three one-off collections for John Lewis. Caroline has always maintained a strong sense of global responsibility. She uses only natural fabrics, her dyes are extracted from plants grown in her garden and/or in her local countryside, and she invests a substantial amount of time and research into sourcing her materials. The art Caroline produces is inspired by the cycle of nature, and simplicity and authenticity are key. Caroline lives in Norfolk, UK, with her husband, daughter and pet dog. Sandra Orme is renowned for her ability to capture dramatic skies and a sense of place. From her studio in the heart of the Peak District in Buxton, Derbyshire, she explores the ever-changing sky and landscape. Sandra applies contemporary pastel and charcoal methods to develop epic representational works that convey the terrible beauty of wild open spaces. Sandra has a degree in Fine Art and many years experience as an art teacher and tutor. She regularly exhibits at both local and national shows as well as galleries, and has exhibited with The Pastel Society at the Mall Galleries in London. Sandra is a member of the art collective, Peak District Artisans, and has contributed to SAA and The Artist magazines. Sandra is also an associate artist with Unison Colour, with her own sets of sky pastels. Sandra has a website, www.sandraorme.com, with online video tutorials. She is active on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.
